

Adam & Eve, When The Sun Says Good-Night To

Now
when the sun says good-day to the mountains and the night says hello to the dawn

I'm alone with my dreams on the hilltop

I can still hear your voice though you're gone

I hear from my door
the love songs thru the wind

it brings back sweet memories of you.

Now
when the sun says good-day to the mountains

I'm alone dreaming only of you.
