

ADAM, Falling Down Again

For everyday I've lost, In vain
For every time I felt (myself) unsafe For everyday I felt (myself) trapped inside Inside a crystal lake Obsession or compassion Never ending pain

Sometime I feel myself lay back on my own grave
lay back on my own grave
lay back on my own grave

No more tears no more scars
This ain't the kingdom of truth
But outside is still dark
And I walk around with my head in my hands
Falling down again
Falling down again

Sometimes I feel myself lay back on my own grave
lay back on my own grave
lay back on my own grave
