Adam Green, Losing on a Tuesday

Losing on a Tuesday filled with purposeful disasters Tell her I'm losing on a Tuesday afternoon Anger steers me clear of every instinct for eloping Someone should mention that I won't see you again Tuesday's the day I die Moping in style but still so lost Caught in between the uptown scenes Destined to fall apart tonight I don't mind the crazy weather I'm so glad we stayed together

I'm just losing on a Tuesday filled with purposeful disasters Tell her I'm losing on a Tuesday afternoon
