

Adam Green, Pay The Toll

I had to pay the toll cut loose on an uptown stroll how do ya need me so much?
no amount of love can satisfy you

i had to cut the cheese i'm out of luck so i thank you, please how do you need me so much?

media man ain't gonna give enough medicine man you need to fill it up how many drugs does it take to find something to do?

i made love to the breaking balls how could you fake it when the cajun calls? how do you need a hotel so big enough a house for anybody else and i'm off the wall so crazy in a vacant stall maybe you worry all the time but no one has to know what goes between the lines any kind of love is a needle in the hay when ya get down they need me day to day how many drugs does it take to find something to say?

shake another baby tell another lie when you was gone i bawled at passerby how many drugs does it take to get you out of my mind, yeah?
no amount of hate get faded on the shelf any kind of love finds anybody else
how many drugs does it take to find something to do?

everybody it takes two
