

Adam Green, What A Waster (Libertines Cover)

What a waster, what a fking waster
You pissed it all up the wall
Round the corner where they chased her
There's tears falling out from everywhere
The city's hard, the city's fair
Get back inside you've got nothing on
No you mind yer bleedin own you two bob cunt

When she wakes up in the morning
She writes down all her dreams
Reads like the book of revelations
Or the celestine prophecies

Oh I really wanna know where does her money go where does all the money go Straight, straight up her nose

And I never even liked it any way
I much preferred it the other way

What a divvy what a fking div
Talking like a moron, walking like a spiv
I was laying in bed, paying my rent
He was knocking on the door for something that she lent her brother
Meanwhile from under the covers she says
Save me from tommorow man, save me from tommorow Oh no,
Oh no not me

And I never even liked it anyway
I much prefer it the other way
I never liked it any way
I much prefer it the other way

What a waster, what a fking waster
You pissed it all up the wall
Round the corner where they chased her
There's tears coming out from everywhere
The city's hard the city's fair

What a waster, what a fking waster yeeeah!
