

Adam Lambert, New Eyes

rainy nights i've know for a while getting away form myself again I was alive but empty inside hole in my heart
I never through I'd mend

I really wasn;t seeing all the things I should see damn, I was getting jaded til the day you looked at me you got those new eyes honey virgin light blue skies sunny everything that you try everything gets you high baby I;ve so blind ithout your new eyes without your new eyes

this chemistry like candy to me I;m addicted to the sweet sleepy haze so whisper at me get me wavy naked and free never no troom for shame

everything gets you high baby
without your new eyes
