

Adam Lambert, Pick U Up

Jumpin' out the window

Movin' on, groovin' on

Which way will the wind blow?

We can't be wrong, so say "So long"

I'ma pick you up, I'ma pick you up

What're you tryin' to say to me?

Catch the train and do what you're tryin' to do

Are you gonna play with me?

All my life, I've been waiting

Pass my time, procrastinating now

It's a trip, I'ma flip and flash right through the scene

Can't you see what I mean?

Breaking through the boundaries

Rollin' on, strollin' on

They won't ever find me

And after all, we'll have a ball

I'ma pick you up, I'ma pick you up

We're gonna see where we can go

This is how I live, this is what I give

And you're the one I want to know

All my life, I've been waiting

Pass my time, procrastinating now

It's a trip, I'ma flip and flash right through the scene

Can't you see what I mean?

Tiny minded, two-tone suckers

Same old faces make me shudder

Countless times I've screamed, "Oh brother!"

Where are you? I need someone to be my lover

All my life, I've been waiting

Pass my time, procrastinating now

It's a trip, I'ma flip and flash right through the scene

Can't you see what I mean?

It's a trip, I'ma flip and flash right through the scene

Can't you see what I mean?
