

Adam Pascal, Ordinary Boy

Insane dance underscoring, in record times
Fate twists, nobody's watching
Eyes twitch, nobody's clockin' me
I swear you won't believe it, the pain, the joy
I got your number, Baby, and, Darling, you got mine

See, I'm not such an ordinary boy
I spend all night just listening to your voice
I'm not such an ordinary boy
Break my heart, do what you will, just don't leave me alone

In my hand and in my mind, I see your face
One up from violation
One down from sympathy
I didn't know how far to go
My laptop crashes, time flashes and you're gone

I'm not such an ordinary boy
I spend all night just listening to your voice
I'm not such an ordinary boy
Break my heart, do what you will, I can't leave you alone
I understand I'm scary still, I'm always here at home

Oh, well, I'm falling over myself now, it must be done
Oh, well, I'm falling over myself now, it must be done
And when you're gone, I come undone....it's over
