Summer Love

Summer of 68,

We sat on the beach and watched the seagulls fly

Sunlight shining in her hair,

Her eyes were bluer than the summer sky

She'd hold me in her arms,

And tell me everything would be alright

But why'd she have to be my mother?

Why'd she have to be married to my dad?

Why'd she have to be my mother?

We could have been so much more but she said it was best if we were just friends

Oh, Summer Love

Summer of 73, my second love,

We met on the field behind the school

We used to play all day in the sun,

No one ever made me feel that cool

I'll never forget the way

She looked in those silky shorts that day

But why'd she have to be my gym teacher?

Why'd she have to be fifty-one years old?

Why'd she have to be my gym teacher?

I told her I wanted to play flag football with her forever,

But she told me to go and see the school psychologist

Oh, Summer Love

In 83, I fell for Princess Di

In 84, it was a Lady Rabbi

In 85, the drummer from Air Supply

HE TOLD ME HE LOVED ME

HE TOLD ME A LIE!!!

(Spoken) Summer Love

Ahhhhh

Ah-Ahhhhhhh

Summer Love

Ahhhhh

Ah-Ahhhhhhh

Summer Love

Summer of 94 is coming fast,

And I don't want to spend it alone

I've made some mistakes in the past,

But I'll put them behind me and pick up the phone

And call the woman who

I should have been going out with all along

I'm gonna go out with my mother

I know what I said before but I think I can talk her into it this time

I'm gonna go out with my mother,

I'll take her on a date to Burger King and this time I'll pay

Oh, Summer Love!
