

Adam & The Ants, Ant Rap

Now
when the sun says good-day to the mountains and the night says hello to the dawn I'm alone with my dreams on the hilltop
I can still hear your voice though you're gone
I hear from my door
the love songs thru the wind it brings back sweet memories of you.
Now
when the sun says good-day to the mountains
I'm alone dreaming only of you.
