

Adam & The Ants, Stand And Deliver

Pussycat's going to London looking for love and for fame I wish somebody had told her city folks ain't the same.
Pussycat carries a postcard won't the big city be nice That's the place with the action she's gonna have her a slice.
Pussycat
where have you been I've been to London. Now I'm queen.
