

Adamantium, Picking Myself Up

Take me somewhere safe
Somewhere far away
To regain the strenght to trust a single fucking thing I say
I'm picking myself up again
I'm picking myeself up
This precious life is the last chance we have
We must try to make the best of it
I quit as my patience wears thin
I'm lost but I'll never give in.
