

Addict, All Change

The trouble is the you think you've time Enough to waste enough to embrace Enough to let you just talk about what you will do Totally lost, fully undone
How do you change what you've become It's all change now Do the best you know how
when desire ends
Peace will come again
So do it now, do it well tomorrow all will have changed again Be awake be amazed be a guest at the best parade For its all change now
do the best you know how
when desire ends
Peace will come again
