

Adelayda, Separate Lives

And I don't mind, livin' without you
And I don't cry as much as I used to
There must be a way
That we can live...
Our separate lives together

And not that I don't care, no
And maybe I'm just wrong
To live a life without you
I'm not that strong

There must be a way
That we can live...
Our separate lives, lives together
Oh yeah

And it's killin me (x2)
This pain is killin me (x2)
Deep in my heart
I don't think I can start, start

But I don't mind, living without you
But I'm starting to cry cry
More than I used to

There must be a way
That we can live...
Our separate lives, lives together
Oh yeah
There must be a way (x2)
That we can live...(x2)
Our separate lives, lives together
Oh yeah
