

Adelitas Way, Crush

I'm slipping away and I can't sleep another day
My loneliness fades to a place deep within
And I can't tell you how to feel inside
And all I can do is make sure this is right

[chorus]

To crush him one last time
To take him off of your mind
To crush him one last time
To take him off of your mind
And let him be drown and i just reach out for your hand
You pull away and i just don't understand
And i can't tell you how to feel inside
All i can do to you is feel the pain your eyes

[chorus]

To crush him one last time
To take him off of your mind
To crush him one last time
To take him off of your mind

[bridge]

I can't tell you how to feel
All I can say is I'm never letting go, never letting go
I don't know if this is real
[if all this is real]

All that I know is I'm never letting go, never letting go

[chorus]

To crush him one last time
[to crush him]
To take him off of your mind
[take him off your mind]
To crush him one last time
[to crush him]
To take him off of your mind
