

Adelitas Way, Last Stand

I'm all alone, you're far away.
I never learned from my mistakes.
Should of known, just what to say
To make you want to stay.
You were always the one giving,
I was always there to take it.
Take your heart and break it.
And i'll, never make it without you.
I need a second chance.
Because i, want to make it about you.
I'll make it my last stand.
It took a second to see,
It wasnt you, it was me
I couldnt let you in.
Now im ashamed its to late to save again,
Now im afraid its to late to save again
Miss you the most, when i sleep.
You turn my nightmares into dreams, Cant lose hope.
Its killing me, im the one who made you leave.
But if i just take a chance now
open up and finally reach out,
Can i save it all somehow?
And i'll, never make it without you.
I need a second chance.
Because i, want to make it about you.
I'll make it my last stand.
It took a second to see,
It wasnt you, it was me
I couldnt let you in.
Now im ashamed its to late to save again,
Now im afraid its to late to save again.
