Adelitas Way, Last Stand

I'm all alone, you're far away. I never learned from my mistakes. Should of known, just what to say To make you want to stay. You were always the one giving. I was always there to take it. Take your heart and break it. And i'll, never make it without you. I need a second chance. Because i, want to make it about you. I'll make it my last stand. It took a second to see, It wasnt you, it was me I couldnt let you in. Now im ashamed its to late to save again, Now im afraid its to late to save again Miss you the most, when i sleep. You turn my nightmares into dreams, Cant lose hope. Its killing me, im the one who made you leave. But if i just take a chance now open up and finally reach out, Can i save it all somehow? And i'll, never make it without you. I need a second chance. Because i, want to make it about you. I'll make it my last stand. It took a second to see, It wasnt you, it was me I couldnt let you in. Now im ashamed its to late to save again,

Now im afraid its to late to save again.
