

Adelitas Way, So What If You Go

So suddenly, you seem to be
So into me, Well i can see
You're not fooling anyone.
you wait for me
We'll wait and see
The apathy
You ask for me
Is that everything that you want?
I thought i should tell you
My mistake was falling in
I thought i should tell you
No, I want you to go.
Dont need you to say that you want me,
So what if you, what if you go?
This son that you know
Dont care if you say that you'll leave me,
So what if you, what if you go?
So you feeling me?
So you feeling free
To scream at me
You laugh at me
Its my fall from faith that she wants.
So show me that you're shaken,
Its the same old situation.
I know, I know i cant go.
I thought i should tell you,
I made my last mistake.
I thought i should tell you,
No, i want you to go
Dont need you to say that you want me
So what if you, what if you go?
This son that you've known
Dont care if you say that you'll leave me
So what if you, what if you go?
You're living a lie.
You live in a cage.
You're holding on so tight.
You're living awake.
You think you should breathe.
Its hard to tell you, go.
No, its time to let this go.
She said to say
Now you're singing,
So what if you, what if you go?
I want you to go
Dont need you to say that you want me
So what if you, what if you go?
This son that you know
Dont care if you say that you'll leave me
So what if you, what if you go?
So what if you go.
(go, i want you to go.
dont need to say that you want me.)
