

Adem, Cut

Walk on this side for a while if you can Turn on the smile as we talk if you want
Speak your insides and my head for some time
I hope you're alright, but I know

I sit by your side as you sleep for a while
Your secret's unbound and blood's lost as it's found
Recover the life that you lost at that time
You'll be alright - I just know.
