

Adem, Long Drive Home

I came 'cause you asked me to, so you didn't have to drive all alone Now I did the favour here, not you Remember, I did the favour here

I've been smiling my best smile I've been laughing with your friends doing everything you asked on the way and I don't know what I've done but we haven't talked for hours and I'm waiting for the long drive home

Do you believe in me enough to say so?

She came from another life of mine
Oh she came from another life
A face to the name that dampened days She's a face and a body and smile

But we hardly said a word I begin to wish we had as the headlamps of the cars stream by And the radio has broke and I'm lost for things to say as we're speeding on the long drive home

Looking at you with your eyes firmly fixed on the road and your mind on an hour ago
And you are looking at me like you think that I started a war While white lights
So like tracers shoot by

Do you believe in me enough to say so?
