

Adema, Pain Inside

Realize that I've lost control
Impulses keep flashing through my head
I'm on the outside

Take apart my life, inside
Why would I let them make up my mind and be misled?
Go ahead make up your mind
I have had enough of who they want
Leave me alone

There's pain inside
I can't understand
There's hate in life
That will not go away (Go Away)

Go ahead make up your mind
I have had enough of who they want
leave me alone
Realize that I've lost control
Impulses keep flashing through my head
I'm on the outside

There's pain inside
I can't understand
There's hate in life
That will not go away (Go Away)
There's pain inside
I cannot live with it
It feels like no one really understands

It's always killing me
The problems I face daily
It's always things that I have always take in vain
(I'm sick of you judging me x3)
(Why won't you go away?)

There's pain inside
I can't understand
There's hate in life
That will not go away (Go Away)
There's pain inside
I cannot live with it
It feels like no one really understands

It's always killing me,
The problems I face daily...
