

Adema, Sevenfold

Taste, you left a bitter taste in my mouth that will never heal to self-revealed unkind
You can never press rewind, you play the part that's so unreal repercussions now pay the price

Watch me walk away done talking now,
Bridges burning yesterday, wont put them out
Never heard a single word, done talking now
Try to get through to me, it won't happen now

I find that you'll get me back sevenfold, decisions in your life
I find gonna get it back sevenfold, bury me alive

Right, you're always on the right, your adversaries left the field,
Signed and sealed, lost sight, cannot lead the blind
You point your finger filled with steel, your huge ordeal denied

Watch me walk away done talking now,
Bridges burning yesterday, wont put them out
Never heard a single word, done talking now
Try to get through to me, it won't happen now

I find that you'll get me back sevenfold, decisions in your life
I find gonna get me back sevenfold, bury me alive

You've been riding so high on one big lie all these years
Denied all my cries never thought you'd hear all these years
So crystal clear you'll cry the same tears we all did all these years,
All these years
All these years

Watch me walk away done talking now,
Bridges burning yesterday, it won't happen now

I find that you'll get me back sevenfold, decisions in your life
I find gonna get me back sevenfold, bury me alive

(At the same time)

Watch me walk away done talking now,
Bridges burning yesterday, wont put them out
Never heard a single word, done talking now
Try to get through to me, it won't happen now

I find that you'll get me back sevenfold, decisions in your life
I find gonna get me back sevenfold, bury me alive

(x3)

Watch me walk away done talking now,
Bridges burning yesterday, wont put them out
Never heard a single word, done talking now
Try to get through to me, it won't happen now
