

Adema, Someone Else's Lies

We are friends and you feel like we've grown apart
That's not the case, you know I'm speaking from my heart
Friendship last forever
Bitches come and go
Someone's lying to you and I'm ready to explode

Why would you think that I would be a liar and your friend?

I'll show you (show you)
What they told you (told you)
Are someone else's lies
I'll show you (show you)
What they told you (told you)
Are someone else's lies

What about the days when we would all hang out
We would talk about our dreams and drive around
Friendship last forever
Bitches come and go
Someone's lying to you and I'm ready to explode

Why would you think that I would be a liar and your friend?

I'll show you (show you)
What they told you (told you)
Are someone else's lies
I'll show you (show you)
What they told you (told you)
Are someone else's lies

LIAR!
Someone's lying to you
Lying to you
LIAR!
Someone's lying to you
Someone's lying to you
LIAR!

I'll show you (show you)
What they told you (told you)
Are someone else's lies
I'll show you (show you)
What they told you (told you)
Are someone else's lies

Why would you think that I would want to hurt you?
Hurt you?
Hurt you?
Hurt you?
Why would you think that I would be a liar and your FRIEND?!
