

Adia Victoria, Dead Eyes

Now I could see the Sunrise and set on you
I've seen the Sunrise and set on you
It set on you

You say you're looking for something make you feel anew
You don't believe in God
Whisky will do
You say you're looking for something make you feel anew
You don't believe in God
Whisky will do
Yeah, Whisky will do

If you ask me a question I'll tell you a lie
So don't be looking at me acting all surprised
If you ask me a question I'll tell you a lie
And now he is looking at me right dead in eyes
He said I'm dead in the eyes dead in the eyes
dead in the eyes
dead in the eyes
I'm dead in the eyes
