

Admiral Twin, Heroes

And so goodbye
Sweet words do ring
Another day
Our hopes will bring

To jaded hearts
And Sundays blue
When love arrives
It changes you

Sometimes it's tangible
That feeling in your soul
Your dreams
Aren't half a world away

To anyone
With half a heart
A shred of hope
A thread of love

Don't be afraid
To let it go
'cos when we love
It makes us heroes all
