

Admiral Twin, I'm No King

I'm no king and I'm no leader
I'm not like Paul but a lot like Peter
I've denied my friends and denied my wife
I know my purpose, I know my rights
As a human, as a friend, as a lover, as a man
I'm a believer and I know what I believe
I'm a believer and I wear it on my sleeve
I'm a believer and I'm climbing up this tree
I'm a believer and the world's looking at me

When I was three I had no worry
My goals were small I wasn't in a hurry
To please the masses or fill a role
To gain the world or lose my soul
I'm a human, I'm a friend, I'm a lover, I'm a man
I'm a believer and I know what I believe
I'm a good bleeder and I know when I should bleed
I'm a reciever and I give what I recieve
I'm a believer and I'm stuck up in this tree

When I was three I thought the world revolved around me,
I was wrong and so I sing
As a human, as a friend, as a lover, as a man
I'm a believer and I know what I believe
You're a bandito and you wear it on your sleeve
You're incognito and you need no help from me
I'm a believer but I wish that I was three years old again
