I know, I know
You've come to take me down
I knew this would happen
Relax
Could it be you were meant for this?
Did you ever doubt it?
But if I cease to be
What of all those lonely, lonely nights?
Your darkroom and your 8x10's?
And if I cease to be
Who will you believe in anymore?
This world is such a bore
Some lives have a way of colliding
And blurring into headlines
I've had dreams about this for years, you know
(Thought you would be taller)
But if I cease to be
What of all those lonely, lonely nights?
Your darkroom and your 8x10's?
And if I cease to be
Who will you believe in anymore?
This world is such a bore
Such a beautiful world
What a beautiful lie
Such a beautiful world
What a beautiful lie
Such a beautiful world
What a beautiful, a beautiful lie
Maybe I'm amazed at how real this is
That's why I'm not frightened
Oh no, guess my time's coming to an end
You've taken your mask off
Such a beautiful world
What a beautiful lie
Such a beautiful world
What a beautiful lie
Such a beautiful world
What a beautiful, a beautiful lie
