Adolescents, Rip It Up

It's like Clockwork Orange a bit of twenty on one Breaking heads well that don't sound like much fun Is that your only way of getting kicks By breaking heads you can't fix Do you think you're tough Because you rip it up Gotta rip you up Do yo gotta rip it up Gotta rip it up Gotta rip it up I've had enough of violence Just to kill boredom makes no sense We're not the background for your stupid fights Get out of the darkness it's time to unite Do you think you're tough Because you rip it up Gotta rip it up
