Child's Play

Rosie dont you feel a little bit weary Rosie dont you feel a little bit grey Come out side and we'll show you how to play

Ruby dont you feel a little bit ugly Ruby dont you love the way that your mean knowing that'z the way that you were seen Cause you never knew the words and you never learned to play the game

Lucky dont you feel the least bit lucky Lucky is the song that desperate sings Come outside and we'll show you what life brings You get the main idea, the main attraction

Chorus:
And it's the first day of our lives the dream of living always survives but the effpert never shows, and anything goes it's just a fantasy, it's just child's play

Violet is your world oh so violent as pretty as you are do you feel so cold show your face and the colors aren't so old

Vicious is the child that has no future vacant are the young who hide from you take all your youth you ain't got nothing to prove and you never knew the words
and you never learned to play the game

Come outside now show your face, take a bow You've been hiding for so long now its time for you to come undone your foolish lies or do come on we want to see a piece of you
This is our final
