

Adriana Evans, I'll Be There

Summer breeze and autumn leaves
Children laugh and play
A mother cries while lovers sigh
And things my often change
I'm just here to let you know
I'll be there

So skies are blue and skies are grey
And heaven touched my hands
So love could fill your empty heart
I hope you understand
I'm just here to let you know
I'll be there

Do you ever wonder what you life has meant
Just look around
And where your happiness is spent

Well skies are blue and skies are grey
And heaven touched my hands
So love could fill your empty heart
I know you'll understand
That I'm just here to let you know
Gotta let my feelings show
I just came to let you know
I'll be there
I'll be there
