

Aendiaena, All I Ever Wanted

all I've ever wanted is that there comes a day in who we will live without any sorrow

all I've ever needed to reach this very day
join our harmony
'till we'll rest in peace and though we pretend we got all that we need will you still see our faces frown from hatred and greed and after a while will the most righteous man fail in keeping his faith when there ain't no faith left

all I've ever wanted
