

Aendiaena, Love & Understanding

you say u love me and I think that's okay but there's one thing I got to complain a typical male thing u can't hear what my heart is sayin' and I fly into a rage but I forgive u ev'rything and that's why

love and understanding could it be so hard to do what ever you're demanding i'm the one to see it through so give me some reasons to justify my love for u we're fussing and fightin' sometimes it's delighting but when u get me wrong all the time i'd like to jump out a speed train stay out in the cold rain 'cause action speaks louder than words but I try to calm my nervs and that's why

love and understanding...
