

Aeon, Ephemeral

Who's taking your life away?
Seems this is your final day.
Have I strength to go through this?
It's easier for you, you will find your peace.

In this world, that I detest so much,
there's always the need for a gentle touch.
One sign of it now it's gone with you.
I wonder now, can you see it too,
your life passing through.
