

Aeone, I Will Remember You Still

Aeone
Miscellaneous
I Will Remember You Still
O my love
I stand on a distant shore
The turning tide
Breathes all the mystery of you...

O my dreams
Are lost with the autumn leaves
That turn to gold
That fall in the memory of you...

Mists of Avalon
Cover my heart
Carry my voice on the wind
Over the waters that keep us apart
I will remember you still...
I will remember you still...

O my heart
Returns to the sweetest morn
That was the springtime
For the loving of you...

O my life
I weep for the drifting years
And for my soul
That longs for the comfort of you...

Mists of Avalon
Cover my heart
Carry my voice on the wind
Over the waters that keep us apart
I will remember you still...
I will remember you still...

I will remember you still...
