

Aerodrone, Alone

I'm in love again
I don't want you to know that it's just a game you were so right to say i'm so selfish for being this way walk away, yeah just walk away but somehow i know you'll be back again and i'll tell you that i love you like you want me to say and if you try to leave me i'll make you find me again and i know when you hear me you'll believe all that i've said... but it's so cold and empty here i'm alone but i'm still with you i don't know just what i should do it will hurt me that way i keep writing it down but it's so hard to say you won't see this side of me i'll make sure that my lips are sealed but somehow everything slipped through you found out the awful truth you can't believe that i would ever do something like this to you
and i know when you hear me
you'll believe all that i've said...
