Aerosmith, Head First

I was dancin' down the sidewalks To some slam dunk juke box jive And I wondered then 'bout this old girl friend Was she still around still alive

Head first baby how the good time feelin' lingers You can be alright on the wrong side of the street I'm so hungry for love I be lickin' off all my fingers But first you gotta learn to talk the bitter with the sweet

It's been years since my gears have been turnin' Since I asked her to St. Vitas dance Have the flames of my poor heart been burnin' If it's hate then this must be romance

Head first baby how the good time feelin' lingers You can be alright on the wrong side of the street I'm so hungry for love I be lickin' off all my fingers But first you gotta learn to talk the bitter with the sweet

Yeah I feel just like gettin' in trouble By the hair on her chinny chin chin And I love to get down on her stubble With my teeth in a Cheshire grin

Head first baby how the good time feelin' lingers You can be alright on the wrong side of the street I'm so hungry for love I be lickin' off all my fingers But first you gotta learn to talk the bitter with the sweet
