

Aerosmith, Joanie's Butterfly

What a stormy night, when I met the pony
It was so dark, that I could hardly see
It smelled so sweet, you know who and Joanie
So many butterflies, one could not see...
We all could feel desire, took off in flight
It was hotter than fire, then came the light

I smell the heat, the dancing ponies
Unwrapped his wings, to dry off Joanie
The pony he grew in size, the thunder and rain
And finally realized, what was, what it does, and what it come to say

Love to kiss the cheek of mother nature, nobody here can deny such things
Make the ladies you love come honey, no butterfly should be denied its wings...

He was kick ass rocking horse! He was like a hell bent tied to the Gavin pole
He was a one time fantasy, I got the bare bones riding to the Holy Land
Bare backed, riding like a running man, nightmares
And he can't hold the candle to my dreams!

We rode the night, and took to wing, it was so all right, it was everything
We flew into burning skies, the thunder and rain, and finally realized
What it is, what it does, and what it come to say!

No, no, no, no, took off in flight
No, no, no, no, then came the light

Flashback, something's coming over me, no sweat one time fantasy
Bare bones all in the wind it seems, hell, who's the chick
That rides into my dreams?

No Libury
No stablize
No one try to please
Nobody's eyes

We'll never see us again, tell me when it passed
Let it all begin, but all of that time, somebody shot an arrow...
Being tempted by the time is never
Breaking me cause your cold sometimes...
Being seduced by your own pleasures
Being king on your own time...

He was a kick ass rocking horse, he was a...
One horn, unicornopia
Two, two in utopia
Three star, verge in to infinity
Four, four, ya...ya hoo...
