

Aerosmith, Luv Lies

Oh, when u cross that line
That u know u can't erase
To fall in lust not luv
Ain't no sin at all
And tell me when you're with
Your best friend's friend
Do you still feel out of place?
No thanks I took that ride
God only knows I've tried believin'

I imagine everyone sometimes
Will cross their heart and
Hope to die
To tell I luv you lies
I imagine everyone survives
For giving up all that u got
To tell I luv you lies

The first time u
Look for luv
U find u don't know Jack, yeah
So much for mind games
U play to win
Cuz first u lose
Your heart's desire
Then u get it back
But ignorance ain't bliss
There's so much more behind the
Kiss I'm feelin'

I imagine everyone sometimes
Will cross their heart and
Hope to die
To tell I luv you lies
I imagine everyone survives
For giving up all that u got
To tell I luv you lies

When loneliness and paranoia
Feeds me
God help the person who needs me, yeah...

If ignorance is bliss
Then take me off the list
I'm leaving

I imagine everyone sometimes
Will cross their heart and
Hope to die
To tell I luv you lies
I imagine everyone survives
For giving up all that u got
To tell I luv you lies...
