

Aeternus, Sword Of The Earth

i am the creator of devastation i rule the underworld and all above i am your maker and undertaker among you i have never walked despised i am - still mortals bow to me my strength and wrath spawned of human hypocrisy indestructible i am - no wars will do untouchable i am - ruler of existence flesh is melted by my blood when i breathe - bones are crushed my roar for revenge - thunderbolts strike inworthy slime - wither and die i am myself - no less no more the symbol of might - the greatest one my disguise is of many - you have never seen me among you i shall never walk weak and blinded, you believe in lies my anger will dismember and devour you i collect your souls and tear them apart the sword of the earth i have become i deny them mirage-gods

i demolish
the labyrinth of lies fire
wind
water
earth
i show no mercy betrayers are slain victorious and proud alone i stand resurrection through self-destruction like a snake
i am shedding skin cleansing myself
