

AFI, Carcinogen Crush

Speechless

Read the words between your lines

In isolation

Silence separates of what design?

I heard you speak

Words I know you didn't write

But I believe you, believe them

'Cause you spoke them again in my dreams last night

I swear to you I'm not the one

I swear so I'll become

Your only desire

Take a bow

You've performed exquisitely

Though the millions scream

I know you'll see

Each subtlety's understood by me

I

I would be as devout

As the high school sweetheart

That I never had, I s-s-s-s-s-swear!

I swear to you I'm not the one

I swear so I'll become

Your only

So if you are confined to me

I swear that you will be

So lonely (dreaming)

Airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me

Airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me

Airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me

Airs of grace, your airs of grace just kill me

Oh!

I swear to you, I'm not the one

I swear so I'll become

Your only

So if you are confined to me

I swear you will be

So lonely (dream-like)

Dream-like

Dream-like
