

AFI, Kiss And Control

Watch the stars
Turn you to nothing.
Now blush and smile as they whisk you away.

Part your lips a bit more,
I'll swallow your fear.
I will show you how
All the bite marks impress
A need to be here,
A need to see

City lights, like rain,
Dance and explode.
Fall upon debutantes

Reeling from nights that
Kiss and Control,
All of our broken hearts.

Velvet burns
The wrists while restraining.
You blushed and smiled,
And said you would stay.

One more time steal my breath,
I'll feed you the sky,
I will show you how.
Steal the glamour from death,
And before you die,
Then you should see

City lights, like rain,
Dance and explode.
Fall upon debutantes

Reeling from nights that
Kiss and Control,
All of our, broken hearts.

All our hearts,
All our hearts.

"We all wanna die like movie stars," you said,
As you jumped from the height of our cutting room floor.
While above us glowing, exploding, our dreams burst forth in light and death.
Hold me and tell me we'll burn like stars, we'll burn as we fall,
Watch as city lights dance for us..

City lights, like rain,
Dance and explode.
Fall upon the pain of our lives,
Reeling from nights that
Kiss and Control,
Fall upon the pain of our lives.

Dance and explode.

City lights like rain, City lights so caress me

Kiss and Control

All of our, broken hearts.
