

Afromental, Gangsta's Girl

Łozina:

I didn't think it was possible

I'm in love with a girl that I barely know oh no

(She's a gangsta'z girl so you better watch out)

The girl's mine.

She's got to be when she's around my heart goes out of beat.

(She's a gangsta'z girl so you better watch out)

Everytime she passes by I cannot stand the pain that she's not here with me by my side

She will be here in my arms

Everytime she's there with him I cannot stand the pain

He's the one that holds her hand not me

Without her in my life I cannot be

Tomson:

Hey Buddy, what's going on with ya

I've never seen you like that before

I see this gangsta's gang

I worry bout you man

Couse I know that you are feelin' that way that you gonna fight for this babe

(She's a gangsta'z girl so you better watch out)

Watchin' you I'm getting affraid that we'll gonna get killed

couse he's lookin' at you man

It' seems that he's feelin' your game

All the time they're watching you and you're still lookin' at this babe

You know we'll stand up with you man, but is it worth it for some girl

Chorus:

She's a gangsta's girl, She's a gangsta's girl

I need her I want her for all my life till it's over

She's a gangsta's girl, She's a gangsta's girl

Allthought you may love her, you touch her your life it's over. x2
