Afromental, It's my life (feat. VNM & Sound'n'Grad

Ladies and gentlemen! Don't laugh at us! You know what? F...

Hey operator I need a favor Please, be my savior If only I could have one wish I would like to call my dad Ash him if I?m good or bad, Should I stick to the plan Or should I leave like this? Bear Dad, life?s a struggle All I have is sore knuckles, And should wear them binoculars And I have love for the music, And love for the grooving And man when I feel it, I just can?t stop moving I have tons of good friends, but there?s no merc benz Yet tho, ?cause I?m on success mode with my band Called Afromental, and even if we?re done with it Man I?ll remember Still people piss me off, greedy and creepy them all Haters playing their roles, jealousy is fucking raw All I wanna do is make my mama proud Old love not finished but already done That?s my life...

I woke up this morning, and the light was shining on me (shining on me) I heard a voice in my head Stand up, feel the morning breeze (morning breeze) It?s gonna give you a lot of hope (hope) You?re gonna go where you wanna go (go, go, go) I?m gonna live my way you won?t be stopping me It?s my life! It?s my life! (It?s my life!, yeah, yeah, yeah) I?II still be chasing dreams It?s my life, my life!

Like it was meant to be It ain?t just came to me Places, faces o? 21st century Havin? a plan but more of a fantasy It wasn?t vivid but I claimed to see The more you learn the more you get Life is a lesson and a game but not easy to bet Travellin? back and back through the memo saved Livin? it up, dravin? the life line with all decisions made I can?t live without my music It?s the air I breathe and never gonna loose it Can?t live without my family and friend Cuz they show me the way How to bear the struggles every day And when I make a mistake and fall down I know they always will be by my side helping my to get up I love you 4 that One love, good people and fuck you all evil minds That?s the way I am It?s my life...

I?II do what it takes
To find the place
Where I can find the perfect harmony
I?II do what it takes
To find the place
Where I can find the perfect harmony
