

After Edmund, Fighting For Your Heart

Someone tore apart your heart
Someone let you down
Down on the ground
Someone ripped away your faith
Someone let you bleed
Forgot what you need
It's not easy moving on
It's not easy moving on
Oh
Let it go
Say goodbye
Call this an emergency
Love's fighting for your heart to be free
Don't waste
Another tear
Drowning here
In yesterday's emergency
Love's fighting for your heart to be free
Someone held you from your dream
Someone pushed you out
Out of the crowd
Somebody stole away your hope
Someone ran off with your heart
You're alone in the dark
It's not easy moving on
It's not easy moving on
