

After Edmund, It's Alright

My eyes would say
That we've seen better days
And they cry
It's hard to stay
When I could run away
And close my eyes
But when there's no tomorrow
You're telling me it's alright
And when I feel sorrow
You're telling me it's alright
There's so much to take
Feels like my heart could break
At any time
So invade this place
With Your lovely grace
So divine
