

After Edmund, Tears

All I'm thinking about
Is keeping your hope alive
You say you're better alone
But tears won't let you hide
The feeling that I know so well
A place I've been before
Locked behind the pain inside
Screaming for a door
Your tears won't let you hide
Your tears won't let you hide
You're running to a breakthrough
There's nowhere else to go
You're reaching for the sunshine
The sunshine
All the lines are on the move
The colors start to fight
True love clears the view
Revealing the black and white
Confusion now is history
And all the fear is gone
You left behind the pain inside
Screaming for more
You're reaching for the sunshine
The sunshine takes you home
