

After Midnight Project, Digital Crush

You're my artificial escape
The burning inside when I can't sleep
An addiction that I know way too well
My dirty little secret that I'll never tell
I'll never ever tell
I'll never ever tell
I'll be up for hours tonight
I've got a digital crush and I can't get enough
But I don't care
I'll sit for hours tonight with my digital crush
She's my virtual drug
I've got her red lipstick smeared across the fuzzy screen
I like it hot and dirty rather than cold and clean
I like it hot and dirty rather than cold and clean
That's what she said to me
I just want you to know that this is just a phase don't ever change
I would rather touch your lips than touch these keys
You come first last and always, last and always You're the only thing that's real
I'll be up for hours tonight
I've got a digital crush and I can't get enough
But I don't care
I'll sit for hours tonight with my digital crush
She's my virtual drug
I'll pay the toll for one hour all alone in your world
I'll be up for hours tonight
I've got a digital crush and I can't get enough
But I don't care
I'll sit for hours tonight with my digital crush
My virtual drug
I'll be up for hours tonight
I've got a digital crush and I can't get enough
But I don't care
I'll sit for hours tonight with my digital crush
My virtual drug
