

Afterlife, Darkness Of The Subconsciousness

Though Noone seems to realize

EveryThough Noone seems to realize

Everytime, when someone dies

I feel the sorrow in My Heart...

But then, tomorrow is today

Again and again, nothing left to say

But We ALL do re-live it.

But now I hope you you'll understand

That I'm just fighting for my promised land.

Burning in the atomspier.

We can't always live in fear.

Though everyone is still afraid.

We steal the income of the home we made.

Away it goes, all away from here

But no one really knows for sure.

But now I hope you you'll understand

That I'm just fighting for my promised land.

Burning in the atomspier.

We can't always live in fear.

Nothing's over! Well, well, well.

We will find for us some place to dwell.

And there, we will NEVER have any kind of sorrow

But deep inside I know we'll all be gone tomorrow.

Tomorrow.
