

Aga Zaryan, Never Sain (Chan's Song)/Trust Me

You're so afraid our love won't last
Living in your past
Pretending you don't see
You're walking with those eyes of fear
Through walls that aren't there
Open up to me
Trust me
Never be afraid
I'd never fool you with those words
That hungry boys have heard
Whispered in the dark
I'd never play love like a game
Or put you through the pain
Of hiding from your heart
Trust me
Never be afraid when you
Trust me
Open up your heart
You're always looking for a lie
Or foul play in my eyes
Trying to play it smart
How can I show you how I feel
When you say that nothing's real
And take my words apart?
Trust me
Never be afraid when you
Trust me
Open up your heart
