

Against All Authority, Life Style of Rebellion

I'm a rat in a maze i'm headed in the wrong the direction if societies the cure well then i'm the infection when i was younger i tried hard to a find a place within it`s structure but the more that i tried the more i fuckin suffered its so hard, its so hard, so fucking hard to live this life my gun is fuckin loaded and i'm begining to see the light i knew all along that it was wrong, when you told me it was right all these fuckin' rules and regulations hold me down i open up my mouth to scream, but no one hears a sound cause they're too busy buying up everything thats been selling that's why i chose to live a fuckin' lifestyle of rebellion
its so hard, its so hard, so fucking hard to live this life
my gun is fuckin loaded and i'm begining to see the light
